Hill Country Film to Show at the _____ Theater

Nudged is scheduled to be shown at the _____ Theater in _____ on _____, _____th. The film will begin at 7:00 pm with a Q&A with the director afterwards.

“The movie deals with some classic themes and some new-age; a pleasant combination for a local film. ‘Nudged’ plays a sort of soft ambient music throughout and has its moments of delightful humor and dark themes as well. What rings especially true is the happenings of everyday small-town life and the effects we all have on one another’s lives.” From the film review by Candice Bruselas, May 14, 2015, San Marcos Daily Record.

Nudged is about lives intertwined. At a community TV station, in a small Texas town, we find artists, mathematicians, yoga instructors, computer programmers, old hippies, the slightly crazy and the unrequited. The three main characters illustrate the dynamics going on. Paul, the artist, is a widower who has gone into his own little world and convinced himself that he is happy right there. Mary, the mathematician, is hiding a big lie and she finally decides to reveal who she really is. Rusty, a one-time, hotshot radio guy, is determined to reclaim the past and is slowly consumed by his fantasies and obsessions. Lives intertwined, these people nudge each other into confessions, confrontations and new expectations.

Nudged was filmed totally in Wimberley, Texas with local actors and using locations at the Bent Tree Gallery, Calley's Jewelry, King Feed and Hardware, Heart of Texas Yoga; on the Wimberley Square; and at several picturesque, local locations. Learn more about the film at nudgedmovie.com.
